The Property

A beautifully presented, modern three-bedroom coastal home offering light-filled and flexible accommodation arranged over two floors. Designed for comfortable everyday living, the property features a spacious open-plan sitting/dining room with doors opening onto the enclosed rear garden, a separate second reception room, and a well-appointed contemporary kitchen with integrated appliances.

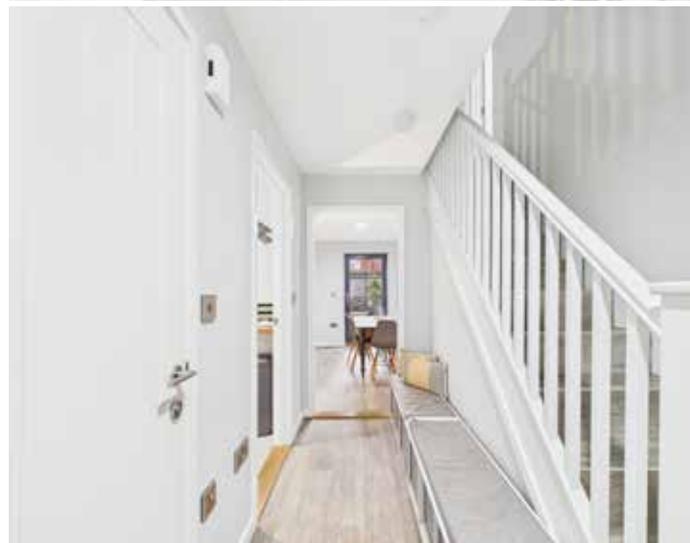

Upstairs provides three generous bedrooms including a principal suite with en-suite shower room, alongside a stylish family bathroom. Outside, the garden offers patio seating and lawn space, while the private driveway benefits from an electric vehicle charging point.

Perfectly suited for a long-term let in this highly desirable sea-side village.

The Location

Set in the heart of Thorpeness, one of Suffolk's most sought after coastal villages, within easy reach of the local pub and woodland walks. Aldeburgh is a short drive away offering independent shops, restaurants and galleries, with Saxmundham providing rail links to London.

Beautifully presented home offering space, comfort and effortless Suffolk living.
