- Two Double Bedroom Maisonette
- Quiet CUL-DE-SAC location
- Enclosed Private Garden
- Garage
- Parquet-Style Flooring
- Beautifully Presented

Spacious Two-Bedroom Ground Floor Flat with Garden & Garage. Well-presented two double bedroom flat with its own private garden and garage, plus gas central heating, double glazing and parquet-style flooring. Convenient for Lowford village, River Hamble & Bursledon station.

This well-presented ground floor flat offers generous living space, a private garden with side access, and a garage with a recently replaced roof. Perfectly located close to the River Hamble, M27 motorway links, Bursledon train station, and local supermarkets, the property combines convenience with comfort.

The property benefits from its own private front door, leading into a welcoming hallway with two useful storage cupboards. From here, you'll find a separate toilet with basin, followed by the first double bedroom, complete with fitted wardrobes.

The spacious lounge is a real highlight, featuring a large bay window that floods the room with natural light, along with fitted units providing excellent storage. The well-appointed kitchen offers ample workspace and storage-perfect for all your culinary needs.

A family bathroom with shower over the bath serves the home, and the second double bedroom is equally well-proportioned, with additional storage and space that could also be used as a home office. This bedroom opens directly onto the lovely private garden, which enjoys beautiful views of mature trees, a peaceful setting, and the benefit of side access.

Additional features include gas central heating, double glazing throughout, and the garage nearby, which has recently had a new roof. With no service charge, a low ground rent, and a long lease, this property also represents excellent value for money.

This is an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors seeking a spacious property in a highly convenient location.
