Why you'll like it

This beautiful detached four-bedroom house is for sale in Keighley, offering family-oriented accommodation in a residential area with access to local amenities, schools and green spaces.

The ground floor includes two separate reception rooms. The main reception features a fireplace, a large bay window with a garden view, and a sliding patio door leading to the rear garden. The second reception room is arranged as a dining room with sliding doors opening directly to the garden, providing flexible space for everyday use and entertaining. There is an open-plan kitchen with dining space, built-in pantries and good natural light, complemented by a very useful utility room. Further there is an excellent study providing additional space for home working and downstairs WC. Upstairs, the property offers three double bedrooms and one single bedroom. The main bedroom includes an en-suite and built-in wardrobes, while the remaining bedrooms are arranged for a variety of uses. The family bathroom is fitted with a shower over the bath. There is also a boarded loft space.

Externally, there are well-maintained gardens to the front and enclosed garden to the rear rear with electrical point and security light. A double garage with electricity, and hot & cold water.

The house is situated in Keighley, within reach of nearby schools, on a very handy bus route, close to local amenities and established walking routes and green spaces. The wider area includes access to parks and countryside, supporting outdoor leisure activities.

Public transport links are available from Keighley railway station, which offers services towards Leeds, Bradford and Skipton. Typical journey times are around 30–40 minutes to Leeds and approximately 25–30 minutes to Bradford, making commuter and leisure travel straightforward. Local bus routes also serve the town and surrounding areas, providing further connectivity.

Overall, this detached four-bedroom house for sale presents a practical layout with multiple reception spaces, a study, utility facilities, garden and double garage in a location with public transport links, nearby schools and local amenities.
