Why you'll like it

This two-bedroom end of terrace house is offered for sale in good condition and is accessed via Tweedy Street in the Wilsden area, convenient for local amenities, public transport links and nearby schools. It is well suited to first time buyers and investors.

The ground floor features a kitchen with natural light, built-in pantries and a useful storage area, providing practical space for day-to-day living. There is a modern bathroom fitted with a shower cubicle. Accommodation includes one double bedroom and one single bedroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a patio area to the front, offering low-maintenance outdoor space, along with a single garage providing additional storage or secure parking. The home is ready to move in.

The property is located within reach of local shops, cafés and services in the surrounding Bradford district, with further amenities available in Bradford city centre, which is accessible by road in around 15–20 minutes depending on traffic. Nearby schools serve the local residential community, making the location suitable for those seeking educational facilities close by.

Public transport links are available via local bus services running along Main Street and surrounding routes, providing connections into Bradford city centre and neighbouring areas. For rail travel, Bradford Forster Square and Bradford Interchange stations offer services towards Leeds in approximately 25 minutes and to Manchester (via connecting services) in around 60–70 minutes, making this a practical base for commuters.
