Why you'll like it

This three-bedroom terraced home is for sale in Oxenhope, near Keighley, and is presented in good condition. It offers two reception rooms, a kitchen, a bathroom, parking and a single garage, as well as a garden.

On the ground floor, the first reception room is separate and benefits from large windows, providing a bright living space. The second reception room also features large windows, with a garden view and direct access to the garden, along with space for dining. The kitchen includes built-in pantries and natural light.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom. The bathroom is fitted with a shower over the bath.

Outside, the property includes a garden, useful parking and a single garage a short distance away.

Oxenhope is a village on the edge of the South Pennines, offering local amenities including village shops, pubs and access to nearby countryside walks, such as those around Leeming Reservoir and the surrounding moorland. Keighley town centre provides further shopping facilities, supermarkets and services.

Public transport links include Oxenhope station on the heritage Keighley & Worth Valley Railway, with access through to Keighley where mainline rail services run towards Leeds, Bradford and Skipton. Bus services connect Oxenhope to Haworth and Keighley, from where regular trains to Leeds can take around 40–45 minutes and to Bradford around 30–35 minutes.

This terraced house may particularly appeal to first-time buyers seeking a property with outdoor space, parking and access to local amenities and transport links.
