Why you'll like it

This two-bedroom end of terrace house is for sale in the historic village of Haworth, near Keighley. Presented in good condition, it offers accommodation suited to first time buyers, investors and holiday let investors seeking a village location with local amenities close by.

The property features a reception room with a stone fireplace and a large window, providing a pleasant outlook and natural light. The kitchen benefits from built-in pantries, good natural light, a view over the garden, and direct access to both an additional WC and the cellar. The utility cellar provides practical storage and access to the rear garden, which offers outdoor space for seating or planting.

Upstairs, there is one double bedroom and one single bedroom, the latter including built-in wardrobes to maximise storage. The bathroom is fitted with a walk-in shower. Permit parking is available to the front of the property.

Haworth is well known for its historic Main Street, independent shops, cafés and pubs, all within convenient reach, as well as attractive walking routes across the surrounding moorland. Local amenities, including village services and day-to-day shopping, are close by.

Public transport connections are available from nearby Keighley station, approximately 10–15 minutes' drive away, offering regular services to Leeds and Bradford, with journey times of around 35–45 minutes, and to Skipton in around 25 minutes. The heritage Keighley & Worth Valley Railway also runs through Haworth, providing an additional connection to Keighley and Oxenhope.
