Why you'll like it

NO CHAIN This three-bedroom terraced house is offered for sale in Cross Roads, near Keighley, and will appeal to first-time buyers and investors seeking a property with scope to complete works and decoration to their own taste.

On the ground floor, an open-plan kitchen enjoys good natural light and includes built-in pantries, providing practical storage. The adjoining reception room features a log burner, creating a defined living area within the open layout. There is also access to a cellar, offering additional storage or utility space.

The accommodation includes two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, providing flexibility for family use, home working or guest space. The modern bathroom is fitted with a walk-in shower. To the front, there is a porch. The garden to the rear is privately rented from a local landowner on an informal basis, with an annual fee payable.

Cross Roads offers local amenities including shops, cafés and everyday services, with further facilities available in nearby Keighley. The area is known for its access to walking routes across the Worth Valley and towards Haworth, with various countryside paths and scenic routes nearby.

Keighley railway station is accessible by local bus or a short drive, providing services to Leeds and Bradford, with journey times typically around 30–40 minutes, making the property suitable for commuting. A range of nearby schools serve the local community, adding to the practicality of the location for buyers looking to live in this part of West Yorkshire.
