Why you'll like it

NO CHAIN This two-bedroom back to back end of terrace house is for sale in Keighley and is arranged over four floors, offering flexible accommodation in an urban setting close to local amenities.

On the ground floor, a separate reception room with a large window and a fireplace provides a comfortable living space. The kitchen includes built-in pantries and dining space, making it practical for everyday cooking and mealtimes. Upstairs you'll find two double bedrooms, providing good sleeping accommodation. The bathroom features a shower over bath. There is also a yard to the side, giving useful outdoor space, and the property is a back-to-back end terrace.

The house is well located for Keighley town centre, with its range of shops, supermarkets and services. Nearby schools and local amenities are within easy reach, making the property suitable for both first time buyers and investors.

Keighley railway station is the nearest mainline station, offering services to Leeds and Bradford, with journey times to Leeds typically around 35–40 minutes and to Bradford around 25–30 minutes, providing convenient links for commuters. Bus routes in the area further connect to surrounding towns and villages.

Keighley offers access to local parks and green spaces, as well as cafés and everyday facilities, all contributing to a practical base in this part of West Yorkshire. The property is offered with no onward chain.
