Why you'll like it

This three-bedroom semi-detached house in Keighley is for sale and offers well-planned accommodation in a convenient, sought-after location with good public transport links and local amenities nearby.

On the ground floor, there is an open-plan main reception room with a large window, creating a bright and welcoming living area. A separate dining room provides a defined space for family meals and has a patio door leading directly to the rear garden. The kitchen benefits from natural light, built-in pantries for practical storage, and direct access to the garden, making day-to-day living straightforward and efficient.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, providing flexibility for families, guests, or a home office. The bathroom includes a shower over the bath. The house is in good condition and is offered with no onward chain. Outside, the property includes parking and a garden, ideal for enjoying outdoor space at home.

Keighley town centre is within easy reach, offering supermarkets, shops, cafés, and everyday services. Local schools and parks are also accessible, making the area suitable for families and first-time buyers alike. Keighley railway station provides regular services to Leeds and Bradford, with journey times typically around 30–40 minutes, and links onwards to Skipton and the wider Aire Valley. Bus routes from the area further connect to nearby towns and local amenities.

Overall, this three-bedroom semi-detached house for sale combines practical living space with access to Keighley's transport links and facilities.
