Why you'll like it

An excellent two-bedroom end of terrace house is for sale in Keighley, arranged thoughtfully over four floors and offering flexible living space.

On the ground level, you'll find an open-plan kitchen and lounge, providing a sociable layout for cooking, dining and relaxing. Stairs lead down to a useful cellar, ideal for storage or as a practical utility area, depending on your needs. The first floor offers a bedroom and bathroom, while the top floor features a large double bedroom with excellent wardrobe storage space, creating a spacious and organised primary bedroom.

Keighley town centre is within easy reach, offering supermarkets, shops, cafés and everyday amenities. Nearby attractions include Cliffe Castle Park and museum, as well as access to the Worth Valley, popular for walks and countryside views.

Public transport connections are convenient. Keighley railway station provides regular services to Leeds and Bradford, with journey times to Leeds typically around 35–40 minutes and to Bradford around 25–30 minutes, making this property a practical option for commuters. There are also local bus services linking surrounding neighbourhoods and nearby villages, including those on the famous Keighley & Worth Valley Railway route towards Haworth.

Overall, this two-bedroom end of terrace house for sale in Keighley offers a practical layout over four floors, with open-plan living and generous storage in the top-floor double bedroom.
