Why you'll like it

CHAIN FREE A fantastic opportunity to acquire this generously sized first floor apartment situated in a convenient and well-connected location in Bournemouth. Offered to the market chain free, this characterful flat presents an ideal project for buyers looking to add value and create a superb home.

The property benefits from larger-than-average accommodation with impressively high ceilings throughout, creating a wonderful sense of space and natural light. Although requiring modernisation and refurbishment, the flat offers enormous potential and retains excellent proportions rarely found in newer developments. The accommodation comprises a spacious lounge, well-proportioned bedroom accommodation, a separate kitchen and bathroom, together with useful storage throughout. Externally, the property also benefits from allocated off-road parking.

A particularly attractive feature is the share of freehold ownership combined with the absence of service charges, making this an appealing long-term purchase for owner occupiers, investors, or buyers seeking a renovation opportunity with strong upside potential.

Campbell Road is conveniently positioned close to Bournemouth town centre, local shops, transport links, and the award-winning beaches, making it an ideal location for both residential living and investment purposes.
