Location – Rooksdown / Limes Park Set within the heart of the Park Prewett redevelopment, Watertower Way forms part of a unique and historically rich setting. Originally serving as a military hospital for Canadian forces during the First World War, the site later became a psychiatric hospital and once again played a role during the Second World War. Decades later, the area was thoughtfully transformed by developer Thomas Homes, who converted the original hospital buildings into distinctive residential homes. This regeneration gave rise to what is now known as Limes Park – the focal point of the newly established civil parish of Rooksdown.
