This well-presented second-floor apartment offers an excellent opportunity to enjoy modern living in the heart of Oxford. Situated on Woodins Way, the property is available with no onward chain, making it an ideal choice for both owner-occupiers and investors.

The apartment features two generously sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with its own en-suite shower room. A bright, open-plan kitchen and living area provides a contemporary space for relaxing or entertaining, complemented by a stylish family bathroom.

A standout feature is the easterly facing balcony, which enjoys pleasant views over a nearby stream—perfect for morning light and a sense of tranquillity.

Empress Court is superbly located within easy reach of Oxford city centre, offering convenient access to a wide range of amenities, the train station, and the Said Business School.

Combining comfort, convenience, and a highly desirable central location, this property represents a fantastic opportunity in Oxford's property market.
