Rules on letting this property

Properties can be let if they have an energy rating from A to E.

You can read guidance for landlords on the regulations and exemptions

(<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/domestic-private-tenanted-property-minimum-energy-efficiency-standard-landlord-guidance>).

Energy rating and score

This property's current energy rating is C. It has the potential to be B. See how to improve this property's energy efficiency.

The graph shows this property's current and potential energy rating.

Properties get a rating from A (best) to G (worst) and a score. The better the rating and score, the lower your energy bills are likely to be.

For properties in England and Wales: the average energy rating is D the average energy score is 60

Impact on the environment

This property's current environmental impact rating is C. It has the potential to be C.

Properties get a rating from A (best) to G (worst) on how much carbon dioxide (CO2) they produce each year. CO2 harms the environment.

Carbon emissions

An average household produces 6 tonnes of CO2

This property produces	2.1 tonnes of CO2
This property's potential production	2.1 tonnes of CO2

You could improve this property's CO2 emissions by making the suggested changes. This will help to protect the environment.

These ratings are based on assumptions about average occupancy and energy use. People living at the property may use different amounts of energy.

Changes you could make

Step	Typical installation cost	Typical yearly saving
1. High heat retention storage heaters	£1,200 - £1,800	£390

Help paying for energy improvements

You might be able to get a grant from the Boiler Upgrade Scheme (<https://www.gov.uk/apply-boiler-upgrade-scheme>). This will help you buy a more efficient, low carbon heating system for this property.
