Full Description

A rare and exceptional opportunity presents itself with this distinctive offering on Cherry Street, located in the heart of Tamworth Town Centre. Comprising two adjoining two bedroom homes, these properties are being sold together, offering a wealth of potential for multi-generational living, a large family home conversion, or dual occupancy with shared outdoor space.

THE FORE

To the front, the properties enjoy a charming low-maintenance gravelled garden with a small boundary wall and two individual paths leading to each separate front door.

ACCOMODATION

Although physically connected at the rear by a well-designed garden room, the purchase will require the separate sale of each property, as they remain legally individual dwellings. However, the current owner is committed to selling both homes simultaneously and will not entertain individual offers.

To the front, the properties enjoy a charming low-maintenance gravelled garden with a small boundary wall and two individual paths leading to each separate front door. Internally, both homes retain much of their original layout, featuring living rooms that flow into dining areas and through to individual kitchens, with each home mirroring a traditional configuration.

The highlight of the rear connection is the garden room, a thoughtfully added space that unites the two homes. It serves not only as a transitional area between the properties but also as a serene sitting room overlooking the expansive shared garden - ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

Upstairs, both properties offer two bedrooms and a family bathroom, though one home benefits from a drop-down staircase providing access to a converted loft room, ideal for a home office or additional guest space.

THE REAR

Externally, the rear garden is open and shared, beautifully landscaped with a variety of evergreens and established shrubbery, and segmented into several distinct patio and seating areas to enjoy throughout the seasons. A summer house, currently used for storage, sits to the rear alongside a charming gardener's toilet and additional brick-built outbuildings offering ample utility space. A side gate allows easy external access back to the front of the property.

PARKING

Parking is well catered for, with resident-only permit parking directly outside, and several nearby pay-and-display car parks offering annual council parking passes for added convenience.

This is a truly unique proposition, ideal for those seeking flexibility in living arrangements or an expansive family residence with scope for personalised use. The combination of town centre convenience, character charm, and versatile space makes this an opportunity not to be missed.
